The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Tuesday September 9. to Saturday September 13. 1729.

Kenſington, September 9, 1729.

HER Majeſty in Council was this Day pleaſed to order, that the Parliament which ſtands prorogued to Tueſday the 16th of this Inſtant September, ſhould be further prorogued to Thurſday the 16th Day of October next.

Whitehall, September 13.

On Sunday laſt, about Nine a-Clock at Night his Majeſty ſet out from Herrenhauſen, and on Wedneſday about Four in the Afternoon arrived at Helvoetſluys; where his Majeſty immediately went on board the William and Mary Yacht, which ſet Sail between Five and Six a-Clock; and having had a fair Paſſage, His Majeſty landed at Margate on Thurſday at Eleven in the Forenoon. From whence his Majeſty proceeded to his Palace at Kenſington, where his Majeſty arrived in perfect Health, God be praiſed, about Ten a-Clock that Night. The People of the Towns on the Road by which his Majeſty came, got together in great Numbers; the Crowds were very great in the Streets of London and Weſtminſter through which his Majeſty paſſed; the Houſes were illuminated; and all poſſible Demonſtrations of univerſal Joy were ſhewn for his Majeſty's ſafe and happy Return.

Kenſington, September 13.

This Day the Lord Mayor and Court of Aldermen of the City of London waited on his Majeſty, to congratulate him on his Arrival; and Mr. Recorder made their Compliments to his Majeſty, to the Effect following;

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

THE Lord Mayor and Court of Aldermen of the City of London moſt humbly beg Leave to congratulate your Majeſty on your ſafe Arrival in Great Britain.

All your People, Sir, have abundant Reaſon to be thankful to Divine Providence for the Preſervation of your moſt Sacred Perſon, under whoſe mild and prudent Government they enjoy ſo many Bleſſings. And theſe your Majeſty's moſt faithful and dutiful Subjects eſteem it a peculiar Happineſs, that you are pleaſed to allow them an Opportunity of expreſſing their Joy in ſeeing your Majeſty returned to this Kingdom in good Health and ſecure from all Danger. It adds to their Satisfaction, that this muſt be an inexpreſſible Comfort to your Royal Conſort our moſt gracious Queen: Who during your Majeſty's Abſence, by her Wiſdom and Conduct, by her ſerene and moſt engaging Diſpoſition of Mind, has continued to your Majeſty's Subjects the moſt perfect State of Quiet and Tranquility.

We are not inſenſible that your Majeſty's Thoughts have been employed in a more extenſive Degree, That your Benevolence to Mankind has inclined your Majeſty to uſe your utmoſt Endeavours for compoſing all thoſe Differences which otherwiſe might have brought on the Calamities of War, and prevented the eſtabliſhing the Peace of Europe, which your Majeſty has ſo much at Heart. We hope and are perſwaded that theſe your Majeſty's moſt laudable Purpoſes will ſoon be accompliſhed to your Honour and Glory. And as your Majeſty, among your other Cares, has been ſollicitous for promoting of Commerce, and ſhown a tender Regard for the Intereſt of your trading Subjects, the Citizens of London are obliged with the utmoſt Gratitude to make their Acknowledgements to your Majeſty for this your Royal Indulgence. And your Majeſty may be aſſured of their ſincere and hearty Attachment to your Royal Perſon and Government, and of their moſt ardent Prayers for the Continuance of your Majeſty's Health and Proſperity.

To which his Majeſty was pleaſed to return the following moſt gracious Anſwer.

I Thank you for this Mark of your Duty and Affection. The Neceſſity of my Affairs called me abroad, where I made my Stay as ſhort as poſſible.

My Return to my Dominions cannot be more acceptable to my People, than it is agreeable to my own Inclinations; and the City of London may depend upon my peculiar Care of their Trade and Commerce upon all Occaſions.

They all had the Honour to kiſs his Majeſty's Hand, and his Majeſty was pleaſed to confer the Honour of Knighthood on Richard Brocas, Eſq; one of the Sheriffs.

Victualling-Office, September 10, 1729.

The Commiſſioners for Victualling His Majeſty's Navy give Notice, That on the following Days in the Forenoons they ſhall be ready to receive Propoſals and treat with ſuch Perſons as are inclinable to furniſh Oxen and Hogs at the Ports hereafter mentioned for the Service of His Majeſty's Navy.

BAYLIS MAYOR.

Martis Quarto die Februarii, 1728. Annoque Regni Regis GEORGII Secundi, Magnæ Britanniæ, &c. Secundo.

WHereas Complaint hath been made to this Court, That great Numbers of loose and disorderly Persons do often assemble themselves at the Place and Times of Execution of the Condemned Malefactors, and that the proper Officers appointed to attend such Executions are frequently insulted and molested in the Performance of their Duty: And that the said Officers who are ordered to assist the Persons appointed by the Company of Barbers and Surgeons in carrying a Dead Body of the Malefactors to their Hall to be Dissected, according to the Act of Parliament, for the Instruction of the Members of the said Company in the Science of Anatomy, are frequently abused and insulted, and are sometimes prevented from carrying away such Dead Body, as aforesaid. This Court does therefore order, That the Under-Sheriff of Middlesex, and the Officers of the two Compters, who are to attend to see the Execution performed, do take special Care to prevent any such Disturbances and Insults: And that they assist the Officers of the said Company of Barbers and Surgeons in carrying away the Dead Bodies to their Hall. And that if any Person or Persons do in any manner oppose or hinder the carrying away any such Body, That the said Officers do seize and apprehend such Person or Persons, and carry him or them before a Magistrate, to be dealt with according to Law. And if any Persons, to the Number of Twelve or more, shall obstruct or hinder the said Officers in their Duty, that then the Under-Sheriff of Middlesex shall read the Proclamation in the Act of the First of King George the First, to disperse such disorderly Persons. And if they continue together in such disorderly Manner for the Space of an Hour after such Proclamation, That then the said Officers do apprehend such Offenders, and carry them before some Magistrate, to be dealt with according to Law. And it is further ordered, That this Order be printed and published in some of the publick News-Papers, and affixed at Newgate, the Place of Execution, and other publick Places within this City and Liberties thereof.

JACKSON.

Martis iiij*to die* Martii 1728. Annoque Regni Regis Georgii Secundi, Magniæ Britanniæ, &c. Secundo.

IT is ordered by this Court, That the Order made the Fourth Day of February last, at the Request of the Company of Barbers and Surgeons, touching the Under-Sheriff of Middlesex and the Officers of the two Compters, their attending the Executions at Tyburn, and assisting the Officers of the said Company in carrying away the Dead Bodies of the Malefactors to their Hall, in Order to be Anatomized, and the other Directions mentioned therein, shall for the future be punctually observed, and put in Execution by the said Under-Sheriff and the Officers of the Compters for the Time being at every Execution.

JACKSON.
